

Jan's Uncle Bill and Dwelling in the Word

Allow me to begin by sharing some background. Jan's Uncle Bill recently passed away. I was privileged to officiate at the "Celebration of Life" last week. This week, two more orders were placed with the publisher for boxes of my book, Dwelling in the Word. This reflection connects these two events.

After I finished writing Dwelling in the Word, Jan's brother purchased a copy and gave it to Jan's Uncle Bill. Uncle Bill was an avid reader.

After his death, as the family was working through his things, there was his copy of Dwelling in the Word. The bookmark was at pages 268-269, Revelation 4-5, "The Throne Room of God."

Perhaps Uncle Bill had almost completed his journey through the New Testament, perhaps he had found and marked Revelation 4-5. Either way, my spirit is buoyed. Such stories and experiences make worthwhile the effort invested in helping bring Scripture to life for others.

Distribution of "Dwelling in the Word" can be measured in hundreds of copies to this point. I do not expect this book will become a best seller. However, in this season of graduations, Mother's Day, Father's Day, and summer weddings, may I suggest a gift that will encourage spiritual growth and strengthen faith. (Also, an idea for birthdays, letting others know of your interest in their spiritual lives.)

Contact the publisher for current discounts: <https://jameskaypublishing.com> . I also have a few copies for local pickup or delivery.
